

June 12, 2007
Contact: Brian Frederick, President
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Joseph Frederick & Sons Wins Carrier President's Award
Plumbing, Heating and Cooling Company Honored for Sales Leadership

Brian Frederick and Robbie Frederick, co-owners of Joseph Frederick & Sons and grandsons of Joseph Frederick

STANTON, Del. – Joseph Frederick & Sons has received the prestigious President's Award from Carrier Residential Marketing. Joseph Frederick & Sons joins a select group of companies that are recognized for excellent customer relations.

Joseph Frederick & Sons, which also received the Delaware Better Business Bureau's Torch Award for business ethics this year, is a family-owned plumbing, heating, and cooling business. The company is celebrating its 60th anniversary this year.

As a President's Award winner, Joseph Frederick & Sons serves as part of a national sounding board to the Carrier brand leadership team, helps further the Carrier Factory Authorized Dealer program, and serves as a role model for other companies.

"We put our customers first, and we are honored that Carrier has recognized us for our efforts," said Brian Frederick, president.

Joseph Frederick & Sons also received a custom-created trophy and was featured on Carrier's website.

###